Beloved Atman,

Salutations and adorations. Om Namah Sivaya.
I am grateful to your venerable self for sending me two copies of the wonderful compilation of the precious gems of wisdom.

It is a pocket treasure !

Like the selfless bee, you have collected the nectar from so many scriptures- Puranas, Tantras, Upanishads and others-and given their very essence, in their own words, the text, in just a few pages.

One who studies this book--and everyone should read it all at least once a day--would have the wisdom and knowledge that is contained in all the greatest scriptures of India.

I hope the blessings and support of His Majesty will enable this wonderful book to be printed in lakhs of copies so that it could be distributed free to all devotees of the Lord, and spiritual aspirants all over the world. It is well worth it. May God bless you !

With regards, Prem OM.

Dear Sir,

Thanks for a copy of your interesting and valuable book Shri Bhagavadchandrika, so kindly sent by you. It seems to be a very fine collection of passages bearing on Godhead from most of the ancient Hindu Shastras. You deserve praise and congratulation. I will read it and meditate over it.

With best compliments and regards.,

पुष्पराजः

Prologue

Everything great or small originates, lives and passes away. Even the universe and its elements such as the Earth, Water, Fire Air, and the Sky with their subtle essence of smell, taste, form (glow lustre), touch and sound pass away. The power of knowledge has, by science, worked out wonders in breaking, analysing and using objects, matters and related energy. That also passes away and is not permanent. Prime Energy or Power and Knowledge are still beyond the scope of science. Power is said to be not separate from the light of knowledge but inherent in knowledge (self pure intelligence), flashing out and in by Self will. Effects proceed from cause, develop in cause and dissolve into cause. In other words, cause procreates effects, develops and ends or dissolves in cause. What then is the ultimate cause or substratum i.e. reality? To know that I am led to study the books of which chiefly are the Sanskrit spiritual scriptures, with commentaries and translations as available. What is found in conclusion is the knower i.e. the knowing-self always present and enduring while all else originate, subsist and dissolve under mere conception and being not genuine reality vanish at the knowledge of the Supreme Self, Omnipresent, Omnipotent, Omniscient, Real Essence Intelligence-Bliss.

Mystery seems in the knowledge itself when the knower's knowing self, which is knowledge, transcendental and immanent, is not conceived or cognised, but only other object is conceived and cognised. Cognising self-knower and giving up other sense of attachment, one, steadfast in his own Self, unattached and entirely devoted to the omnipresent, omnipotent, omniscient, Ultimate Reality, will resolve into Self Intelligence, beyond name (sound), and form (glow,) and will get the bliss of final beatitude-Pure Self-Existence-Intelligence-Bliss.

Calm concentration to pure knowledge, which is the real knower Self, eliminates knower, knowing and knowledge, remaining only ever pure Self-Effulgence, Real Essence-Intelligence-Bliss.

Indication of the conclusion is the lines collected from these scriptures for my personal meditative concentration and living, getting up into the present form of "Shree Bhagavachchandra", for which my grateful reverence is to the authors.

A sincere, deliberate and intent study of this book will undoubtedly lead to the perception of genuine real knowing self, pervading all and abiding in all, spirit of equality and goodness in all, no harm and thereby attaining tranquility (pure conscience transcending physical substance and the mind) finally absorbing into the genuine real knowing self, pure intelligence, the ultimate Supreme Self, absolute, pure knowledge, bliss and existence.

I am overwhelmingly indebted to His Majesty Shree Shree Shree Shree Shree Mahendra Veera Vikrama Shaha Deva for the most valuable inspiration under which this book could be completed and also for the financial help granted for the publication and free distribution of the book to the devout use of the devotees.

Five editions have already gone through press, two of which are with Nepali Translation, for the benefit of Nepali knowing people, rendered by Professor Ram Nath Acharya of Government Sanskrit College, Nepal, also part time Professor in Tribhuvan University.

This is the sixth edition which now includes the Sanskrit Text also with Roman reading and English translation by Professor Gopal Nidhi Tiwari, Vedantacharya, M. A. (English), Professor in Vedanta at Government Sanskrit College and Tribhuvan University, Nepal, to whom I am grateful for the beneficial use of English knowing devotees.

Thanks also are due to— Pandit Ram Nath Acharya, Professor of Sanskrit Literature in Government Sanskrit College and Tribhuvana University, Nepal for reading kindly the Sanskrit portion, —to Mr. Narayan Prasad Shrestha Lecturer in English, Patan College and Tribhuvan University for kindly going over the English portion excepting that from Brahmasootra to the end —to Professor Gopal Nidhi Tiwari for reading again the entire book in proofs just going under press and —to Mr. Durga Bahadur Shrestha B. A., B. L., Deputy Personal Secretary to H. M. The King of Nepal, for the help rendered in going through the Proof sheets, - and for their valuable suggestions here and there.

Praying to God, the True Ultimate Supreme Essence or Pure Intellect, for the guidance and for prosperous reign and long life of His Majesty and also for peace and prosperity to all, I remain in memory of Pure Intellect Self-effulgence.

Pushpa Raj

Preface

Jnana (the knowledge) is the real means to avoid all trouble of mankind. It is necessary for all human beings in all ages and places. Human beings can live in peace and bliss on the basis of philosophy and religion. Men must attain spiritual enlightenment under which they can obtain solution to every difficulty. The grand truth, in reality, is to fix our mind on that supreme light self. Thus gradually we get prepared for the realisation of the Ultimate Reality. There is no difference between the individual self and the Supreme Self, the Ultimate Reality or Knowledge. Only equanimity or identity remains and all duality dissolves into the Ultimate Reality, the identical essence. The knower, the knowing and the knowable become only knowledge, identical self, that is, pure self-effulgence, free from falsehood. So absolute equality or identical knowledge is the peaceful pure Ultimate Reality. Men should study the books on spirituality for this truth. The essence of the spiritual scriptures such as the Puranas, Tantras, Yoga, Brahmasootras, Upanishads etc. is the constant-existent conscious bliss or self-effulgence.

Shree Bada Kaji Pushpa Raj has collected the valuable verses and passages from most of the Scriptures like the Puranas, Tantras, Yoga, Brahmasootras, Upanishads etc in this book Shree Bhagavachchandrika. Here is given knowledge, the basis of all. All other things are proved unreal due to the state of possessing no separate existence from the basis (knowledge). Creation and dissolution are no more than flashing out and flashing in of the Supreme Knowledge (the Supreme Soul). Through knowledge the universe is known as the mirage. In the ultimate state of realisation there is no difference between the knower and the knowable. Duality is caused by illusion and its reflection. Ignorance should be removed through pure intellect and thereby the supreme knowledge should be realised for avoiding all these defects. For purification of intellect, men must follow unselfish good action, identical devotion and non-dual intelligence. These are clearly expressed in the verses and passages collected in this Shree Bhagavachchandrika. So, I hope, this collection to be really helpful to the devotion of knowledge, the self-effulgence.

I am greatly indebted to Bada Kaji Pushpa Raj for his real philosophical experience and great inspiration given to me in translating this divine elucidation (moonlight) viz Shree Bhagavachchandrika. I also owe a great debt to the classical commentators and the modern writers in the field of interpretation and translation.

Above all, it gives me great pleasure to have the honour of showing deep devotion to His Majesty King Mahendra Veera Vikrama Shaha Deva, who has inspired us out of his inborn philosophy and under whose blessing and support the devotees of knowledge want to serve humanity and realise the grand truth "All this is Brahma (the Ultimate Reality)". His Majesty has also granted financial aid in printing this divine collection and distributing free to devotees of knowledge many times for their divine bliss.

The text is given here in Roman script also for those who cannot read Devanagari scripts. It is hoped that this spiritual collection will be read with pleasure and faith on self by

We meditate on the real Supreme Lord who has always destroyed the entire ignorance through His own self-shining light and from whom proceed the creation, protection, and destruction of the universe, yet HE remains constantly real, being detached from the unreal. HE is conscious and self-shining. He, it is, who lighted, through the heart (the intellectual power) to the first scholar, the knowledge of the Veda, the Brahma, about which the great scholars (the wise) get confused. It is He in whom the three fold (embodied in the three states of waking, dreaming and dreamless sleep or gross, subtle and casual) creation appears as real (due to the reality of the foundation) like the illusion of water in rays, of land in water, and of water in land. 1/1/1

Prakriti (Primary Supreme Power) is a reflection of Para Brahma (Supreme Spirit.)

Eternal Brahma (Supreme Spirit) is realised through contemplation.

Oh Goddess ! By self-will of the Supreme Being, good Kundalee power of the Supreme Power, grows into manifold power of the Creator resorting to final beatittude of pure Bliss, identical with Brahman (Supreme Being), Intelligence, Bliss, verily absolute Brahman (Pure Supreme Consciousness) alone.

Prakriti (Prime Power) is Supreme Power, Vikriti (pro-creating power) is a reflection.

Adi Narayan (the foremost Supreme Spirit in the multitude or water) is verily the Para Shambhu (Supreme Spirit Lord)

That truly is attributeless Brahman (Supreme Reality) called Brahman on account of greatness or infinity.

Oh Goddess ! That glorious Prakriti (Prime Power) is (Shreeh) Supreme Origin like pure Crystal, without beginning-middle-end, free from quality, infinitely luminous.

The reflection that happens between the two is the reflection of both known as Ardha-nareeshwara (Lord with half part female i.e. supreme power).

Oh Goddess ! The reflection is Maya (illusory superimposition). Thence Brahma, Maheshwarah, Vishnu, Iswara etc. (creator, destroyer, protector, Lord etc.). keepers of the world, are produced out of their mutual parts (nature).

Immutable and eternal is Shambhu (Supreme Being) as well as Prakriti (Supreme power), without beginning and end, complete, pure Self Intelligence.

That essence which is called unthinkable is the Supreme Lord (Shiva), the supreme cause. He is nameless, unchanging pervading and tranquil. He is beyond purpose, self-abiding, pure intelligence, omnipotent and final.

The splendour (light) of Him, the great Soul, is favouring all, unrivalled, omnipresent, shining inside heart and faultless.

Oh Goddess ! His Power is natural inherent in Self. He is lustrous by nature like rays of crystal. His Power issuing out of His will is in the form of knowledge stimulating mind. That proceeds without ignorance and that is regarded as one renouncing all worldly attachments and connections (Abadhoota). Instantly She gives rise to infinite point (cause or Bindu) and sound (effect or Nada). Being coiled or encircling, She remains in her sound (effect or Nada) smoothly. Oh Goddess! Moving under the will of the Supreme Lord (Shiva), She creates all.

Only one Supreme Power illuminates the multitudes of diversities. She is perennial, without elements Goddess Supreme Power and illumination of the Supreme Reality. In that Power all originate whatever worlds are in the universe. Therefore pure or impure, Power is Supreme Spirit. Know Self as the Supreme Spirit. Give up illusory thinking (ignorance). Knowledge is supreme power. Therefore rely upon knowledge. Efface all doubts by the way to knowledge. The intelligence should be realised by highest preceptors in all beings. Knowledge is pure supreme Bliss. Be Supreme Being only. Thus Self-existent Conscious Knowledge is one or identity in all beings.

This (Universe) was then undifferentiated. It differentiated into name and form. This Self entered in here. They do not see It. It is incomplete; when breathing, It is called the vital force; when speaking, voice (organ of speech); when seeing, the eye; when hearing, the ear; when thinking, the mind. These are merely names of Its functions. Self alone is to be meditated upon. In it all these indeed become one-entity. That this, which is the Self of all this, should be realised. By this Self in deed, one knows all. 1/4/7

When there is duality as it were, one sees, smells, tastes, speaks, hears, thinks, touches and knows something else.

But where every thing has become just one's own Self, by what and whom should one see, smell, taste, speak, hear, think, touch and know. By what should one know him by whom all this is known ? The Self is (described as) not this, not this. He is incomprehensible and is never comprehended. He is undecaying and never decays. He is unattached and is never attached. He is unfettered and never suffers pain and injury. Indeed by what should one know the knower ? This indeed is life eternal.
